DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 3/14/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that reference 5,728,095 does not disclose or suggest providing more than 3 attachment structures per plate. Examiner respectfully disagrees. Reference '095 discloses plates with plurality of holes or attachment structures (75 and 79), each plate includes 24 holes/attachment structures spaced around each plate (6 holes x 4 = 24, a multiple of 3 or 6).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-12, 36-48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Taylor et al. (5,728,095). Taylor et al. Disclose an orthopedic fixation device, as claimed including 2 rings having 24 holes/attachment structures. Note: The introductory statement of intended use and all other functional statements (for example, the equation) have been carefully considered but are deemed not to impose any structural limitations on the claims distinguishable over the Taylor et al.'s device which is capable of being used as claimed if one desires to do so.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 13 and 14 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The prior art fails to disclose one or more plates being multiple diameter plates having a second set of attachment structures.
